INSTRUCTIONS FOR ATTORNEYS COMPLETING CIVIL COVER SHEET FORM JS-44

Authority For Civil Cover Sheet

The JS-44 civil cover sheet and the information contained herein neither replaces nor supplements the filings and service of pleading or other papers as required by law, except as provided by local rules of court. This form, approved by the Judicial Conference of the United States in September 1974, is required for the use of the Clerk of Court for the purpose of initiating the civil docket sheet. Consequently a civil cover sheet is submitted to the Clerk of Court for each civil complaint filed. The attorney filing a case should complete the form as follows:

- I. (a) Plaintiffs Defendants. Enter names (last, first, middle initial) of plaintiff and defendant. If the plaintiff or defendant is a government agency, use only the full name or standard abbreviations. If the plaintiff or defendant is an official within a government agency, identify first the agency and then the official, giving both name and title.
- (b) County of Residence. For each civil case filed, except U.S. plaintiff cases, enter the name of the county where the first listed plaintiff resides at the time of filing. In U.S. plaintiff cases, enter the name of the county in which the first listed defendant resides at the time of filing. (NOTE: In land condemnation cases, the county of residence of the "defendant" is the location of the tract of land involved).
- (c) Attorneys. Enter firm name, address, telephone number, and attorney of record. If there are several attorneys, list them on an attachment, noting in this section "(see attachment)".
- II. Jurisdiction. The basis of jurisdiction is set forth under Rule 8 (a), F.R.C.P., which requires that jurisdictions be shown in pleadings. Place an "X" in one of the boxes. If there is more than one basis of jurisdiction, precedence is given in the order shown below.

United States plaintiff. (1) Jurisdiction is based on 28 U.S.C. 1345 and 1348. Suits by agencies and officers of the United States are included here.

United States defendant. (2) When the plaintiff is suing the United States, its officers or agencies, place an X in this box.

Federal question. (3) This refers to suits under 28 U.S.C. 1331, where jurisdiction arises under the Constitution of the United States, an amendment to the Constitution, an act of Congress or a treaty of the United States. In cases where the U.S. is a party, the U.S. plaintiff or defendant code takes precedence, and box 1 or 2 should be marked.

Diversity of citizenship. (4) This refers to suits under 28 U.S.C. 1332, where parties are citizens of different states. When Box 4 is checked, the citizenship of the different parties must be checked. (See Section III below; federal question actions take precedence over diversity cases.)

- III. Residence (citizenship) of Principal Parties. This section of the JS-44 is to be completed if diversity of citizenship was indicated above. Mark this section for each principal party.
- IV. Cause of Action. Report the civil statute directly related to the cause of action and give a brief description of the cause.
- V. Nature of Suit. Place an "X" in the appropriate box. If the nature of suit cannot be determined, be sure the cause of action, in Section IV above, is sufficient to enable the deputy clerk or the statistical clerks in the Administrative Office to determine the nature of suit. If the cause fits more than one nature of suit, select the most definitive.
- VI. Origin. Place an "X" in one of the seven boxes.

Original Proceedings. (1) Cases which originate in the United States district courts.

Removed from State Court. (2) Proceedings initiated in state courts may be removed to the district courts under Title 28 U.S.C., Section 1441. When the petition for removal is granted, check this box.

Remanded from Appellate Court. (3) Check this box for cases remanded to the district court for further action. Use the date of remand as the filing date.

Reinstated or Reopened. (4) Check this box for cases reinstated or reopened in the district court. Use the reopening date as the filing date.

Transferred from Another District. (5) For cases transferred under Title 28 U.S.C. Section 1404(a). Do not use this for within district transfers or multidistrict litigation transfers.

Multidistrict Litigation. (6) Check this box when a multidistrict case is transferred into the district under authority of Title 28 U.S.C. Section 1407. When this box is checked, do not check (5) above.

Appeal to District Judge from Magistrate Judgment. (7) Check this box for an appeal from a magistrate's decision.

VII. Requested in Complaint. Class Action. Place an "X" in this box if you are filing a class action under Rule 23, F.R.Cv.P.

Demand. In this space enter the dollar amount (in thousands of dollars) being demanded or indicate other demand such as a preliminary injunction.

Jury Demand. Check the appropriate box to indicate whether or not a jury is being demanded.

VIII. Related Cases. This section of the JS-44 is used to reference relating pending cases if any. If there are related pending cases, insert the docket numbers and the corresponding judge names for such cases.

Date and Attorney Signature. Date and sign the civil cover sheet.

 The Complaint asserts inter alia, breach of contract, breach of duty and good faith and fair dealing and fraud and misrepresentation.. See Plaintiffs' Complaint, Exhibit A.
- 12. Plaintiff seeks to recovery one half of the profits from various stores, including but not limited to stores at the Pittsburgh and Orlando airports, plus interest, attorneys fees, and punitive damage.
- 13. Although the Complaint does not indicate that the amount in controversy is in excess of $75,000, it is clear that the Complaint, read in the aggregate, seeks an amount in excess of $75,000, the monetary floor for this diversity action.
- 14. Because Plaintiff is a citizen of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and Defendants are citizens of the State of Florida, complete diversity of citizenship exists.

 Moreover, the amount in controversy exceeds the sum or value of $75,000.00, exclusive of interest and costs.

15. Accordingly, the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania has original subject matter jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1332(a) and this action is removable to this Honorable Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1441.

16. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1446(d), a copy of this Notice of Removal is being filed with the Prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas of Lehigh County, Pennsylvania, and is being served on Plaintiff. See Notice of Filing of Notice of Removal attached hereto as Exhibit "B."

WHEREFORE, Defendants pray that an Order be entered that Civil Action No. 2005-C-1386 of the Court of Common Pleas of Lehigh County, Pennsylvania, be removed to this Court for further proceedings, and that this Court take jurisdiction herein and make such further Orders as may be just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

- 7. At all times material hereto, Solomon Terner and Rosa Terner were the agents of BTP and authorized to act on its behalf.
- 8. At all times material hereto, Nat Hyman, was the authorized agent of Hyman and authorized to act on its behalf.

VENUE

9. Venue is proper in Lehigh County pursuant to Pa.R.C.P.
2179 because transactions and occurrences took place in Lehigh
County out of which the causes of action set forth herein arose.

FACTS GIVING RISE TO THE DISPUTE

- 10. At all times material hereto, Hyman was engaged in the retail business of selling accessories.
- 11. At all times material hereto, BTP was engaged in the wholesale and retail business of selling accessories.
- 12. At all times material hereto and specifically prior to June 11, 2004, BTP knew that Hyman intended to open retail stores in environments frequented by tourists and which would sell merchandise of a similar nature to that which BTP sold.
- 13. On or about June 11, 2004, Solomon Terner and Nat Hyman agreed to a business relationship whereby Hyman and BTP would jointly open all new BTP stores in the United States on the basis of the following terms:
- a) Hyman and BTP would each be responsible for fifty (50%) per cent of the investment for each store;
- b) Hyman would build the store, supply computer equipment, bags, boxes and pay any other expenses necessary to open the store and would then be responsible for the operation of the store;
- c) BTP would supply the fixtures necessary to open the store as well as the merchandise on an ongoing basis; and

- d) on a regular basis Hyman and BTP would reconcile their accounts to insure that their investment in each store and their costs of operation were being shared equally; and
- e) at the end of each year, the profit (or loss) would be divided equally.
- 14. Immediately following the understanding described in Paragraph 13, above, Rosa Terner requested that Hyman convert some of its existing stores to BTP stores.
- 15. Between June and September of 2004, Nat Hyman met several times with Solomon Terner and Rosa Terner, and at all such times, Solomon Terner urged Hyman to proceed with their business arrangement with all due haste, telling him that they would like to open as many as fifty (50) stores in the first year.
- 16. Whenever Nat Hyman would ask Solomon Terner about reducing their agreement to writing, he would be told that the BTP lawyers were worried that it would constitute a franchise, and Hyman should proceed because he was like family and his handshake was his bond.
- 17. In reliance upon these statements, Hyman spent considerable time and money looking for locations, and then meeting and negotiating with various landlords.

- 18. On or about October 5, 2004, Solomon Terner and Rosa Terner met with Nat Hyman in Allentown, Lehigh County, Pennsylvania, to discuss the process by which they would implement the agreement set forth in Paragraph 13, above, and they agreed as follows:
- a) all Bijoux Terner stores (other than those operated by independent third parties existing as of that date) in the United Sates would be owned and operated by a new corporation owned equally by Hyman and BTP;
- b) the new corporation would own and operate BTP's stores at the Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania and Orlando, Florida airports;
- c) Hyman would convert and operate two existing Hyman stores, specifically the ones located in Puerto Rico and Baltimore, Maryland;
- d) the parties would set up a joint venture to sell Hyman products wholesale and retail outside the United States, including cruise ships; and
 - e) the parties would share all sourcing information.
- 19. In reliance on the statements from Solomon Terner and Rosa Terner, Hyman sent a representative to meet with BTP representatives to continue with the implementation of the business plan set forth in Paragraphs 13 and 18, above.

- 20. Following the meeting in Allentown, Lehigh County, Pennsylvania, Solomon Terner and Rosa Terner urged Nat Hyman to begin converting Hyman stores to the sale of BTP merchandise.
- 21. In further reliance on the statements and representations of Solomon Terner and Rosa Terner, in November of 2004, Hyman converted stores located in Plaza Las Americas, Puerto Rico, and the Inner Harbor, Baltimore, Maryland to BTP merchandise.
- 22. During the period of time between October, 2004 and March, 2005, Solomon Terner advised Hyman that he could not sign a written agreement yet because he was considering a public offering, and the agreement would create complications. Nevertheless, he continued to reassure Hyman of his integrity, stating that he had many agreements with business partners, including David Rockefeller, which had never been reduced to writing.
- 23. In March of 2005, Hyman learned that, contrary to the statements and representations of Solomon Terner and Rosa Terner, BTP had been sending its own representative, James Norland, to negotiate leases on its own behalf at locations which were being pursued by Hyman.

- 24. When Nat Hyman confronted Rosa Terner with the information set forth in Paragraph 23, above, Rosa Terner denied it.
- 25. On or about March 31, 2005 BTP, informed Hyman that it did not intend to continue with the business arrangement as stated in Paragraphs 13 and 18, above, because his attorney advised him that the venture would adversely affect his ability to either sell his company or to make a public offering.
- 26. Despite demand from Hyman, BTP continues to refuse to keep any of the promises it made to Hyman.
- 27. As a direct and proximate result of the foregoing, Hyman has been injured and damaged by loss of profits, loss of reputation, expenses in seeking locations for stores, as well as other costs and losses associated with its efforts to implement the agreement between the parties. As a direct and proximate result of said breaches, Hyman sustained other injuries as may be discovered.

COUNT I BREACH OF CONTRACT

28. Hyman incorporates by reference herein, paragraphs 1 through 27 of the Complaint, as if fully set forth at length.

- 29. The failure and refusal by BTP to honor and comply with its agreement and with its promises to Hyman constitute the following:
 - a) breach of an oral contract; and
- b) breach of an implied obligation of BTP to perform in accordance with terms of the aforesaid business agreement Hyman was induced to enter to his detriment in reliance upon BTP's promises and representations and to BTP's unjust enrichment.

COUNT II PROMISSORY ESTOPPEL

- 30. Hyman incorporates by reference herein, paragraphs 1 through 29 of the Complaint, as if fully set forth at length.
- 31. Upon information and belief, it is alleged that the representations set forth above were false and misleading and were intended to be such by Solomon Terner and Rosa Terner with the expectation that they would delay Hyman from opening similar stores in retail environments which could only accommodate one such store.
- 32. Upon information and belief, it is alleged that Solomon Terner and Rosa Terner:
- a) knew or believed that the matters were not as they were represented to be; or

- b) intended to disavow the promises and representations made; or
- c) knew that they did not have a basis for the representations that they stated or implied.
- 33. Hyman was induced by and justifiably relied upon the misrepresentations described above in abandoning its plans to open similar stores on its own accord, converting existing stores to Bijoux Terner stores, and in expending its time and efforts in opening Bijoux Terner stores at various locations.
- 34. Hyman's justifiable reliance upon the misrepresentations described above were a direct and proximate cause in determining Hyman's actions which resulted in its injuries, losses and damages.

COUNT III BREACH OF DUTY OF GOOD FAITH AND FAIR DEALING

- 35. Hyman incorporates by reference herein, paragraphs 1 through 34 of the Complaint, as if fully set forth at length.
- 36. The failure and refusal by BTP to honor and comply with its agreement and with its promises to Hyman constitute a breach of its duty of good faith and fair dealing and the doctrine of necessary implication.

COUNT IV FRAUD AND MISREPRESENTATION

- 37. Hyman incorporates by reference herein, paragraphs 1 through 36 of the Complaint, as if fully set forth at length.
- 38. In order to induce Hyman not to enter into a business similar to that of BTP, Solomon Terner and Rosa Terner represented to Hyman that BTP intended to implement the business agreement as described above.
- 39. Hyman believes and therefore avers, that such representations were materially false, in that BTP had no intention of implementing the agreement which the parties had reached.
- 40. Such material misrepresentation was made by BTP with actual knowledge of its falsity.
- 41. Hyman justifiably relied upon the material misrepresentation of BTP.
- 42. Hyman would have commenced opening stores with a similar business model in June of 2004 if it had been aware of the true intentions of BTP.
- 43. BTP is liable for the fraudulent misrepresentations of Solomon Terner and Rosa Terner within the course and scope of their employment and in furtherance of the business of BTP.

44. In light of the BTP's knowing, willful, deliberate and bad faith misrepresentations and outrageous conduct done in contempt of Hyman's rights, Hyman believes and therefore avers that it is entitled to an award of punitive damages and demands same from BTP.

COUNT V ACCOUNTING AND INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

- 45. Hyman incorporates by reference herein, paragraphs 1 through 44 of the Complaint, as if fully set forth at length.
 - 46. Hyman does not have an adequate remedy at law.

WHEREFORE, Hyman request that an order be entered:

- a) directing BTP to account to Hyman for all profits received by it;
- b) enjoining BTP from opening any other stores other than with the direct participation of Hyman and only upon the terms of their agreement;
- c) enjoining BTP from selling merchandise to stores which have been opened in breach of its agreement;
- d) directing BTP to comply with all provisions of the parties' agreement so that the parties' respective shares in the net amount of the proceeds may be determined;

- e) directing BTP to pay over to Hyman one half of the profits plus interest, attorneys' fees, and punitive damages, and entering judgment in favor of Hyman and against BTP in such amounts;
- f) directing BTP to transfer a fifty (50%) per cent interest to Hyman in its stores at the Pittsburgh and Orlando airports;
- g) enjoining BTP, its officers, partners, agents, servants, and employees from transacting any business in any other venture which pertains, or relates in any way, to the agreement with Hyman; and
- h) granting such other and further relief as this Court may deem appropriate.
